

MARK ABSHER

Registered In-House Counsel

Mark Absher serves as in-house legal counsel for ShiftPixy, bringing 25 years of corporate, litigation, nonprofit and law firm experience to the company. With an extensive background in transactions, insurance, nonprofit and employment law, Absher has been instrumental in securing significant settlements and negotiated results on behalf of his clients. He was invited by the National Association of Alternative Staffing (now known as P.A.C.E.) to serve as counsel to assist in drafting and lobbying for industry-related legislation before federal House and Senate Committees.

Most recently, Absher was Associate General Counsel to LifeWay, a national publishing, retail and events organization based in Nashville, where he represented the organization in numerous commercial transactions. These included 23 completed acquisitions and divestitures, the most sizeable of which was the organization's sale of its headquarters campus, which ranks among the largest private land sales in the history of downtown Nashville. Prior to that, Absher served as corporate counsel for the National Community Foundation and in various legal and advisory roles for three businesses in the staffing industry, including ServiceMaster Employer Services, Inc., Sharp Services, Inc., and T.T.C., Illinois, Inc.

Absher graduated cum laude from Bob Jones University with a Bachelor of Science degree in English education. He received his Juris Doctor from The John Marshall Law School in Chicago, and maintains active licenses to practice law in Tennessee and Illinois.
